Uplifting contributions from Unitarian Universalists*

“UUs are notoriously poor singers, because they're always reading two lines ahead, to make sure they agree with the words.”

WELCOME VISITORS

We are Unitarian Universalists. We are brave, curious, and compassionate thinkers and doers. We are people from many backgrounds who have different beliefs, but shared values.

Grounded in more than two hundred years of thoughtful, spiritual communities, we are people of many generations, ethnicities, genders and sexualities, and spiritual backgrounds. People engaged in making the world a better place. People focusing on what really matters – love, justice, integrity, and hope.

We are a lay-led congregation. Lay-led congregations have no minister which means members of the congregation manage the various aspects of our church life. Unitarian Universalism has a proud tradition of lay-led churches.

We Unitarian Universalists have different beliefs, but shared values. We are Unitarian Universalists, and at the same time we may also be agnostic, Buddhist, Christian, Hindu, humanist, Jewish, Muslim, pagan, atheist, believers in God, and those who just let the great mystery be. The diversity of beliefs you'll find in our church community is one of our strengths – we're always learning how to see the world from a different perspective.

LOOKING TO NEXT SUNDAY - DECEMBER 3

10 am - Adult Forum

A Visual Look at the Universe

Now thru March 3rd

11:15 am - The Morning Assembly

Reflections on the Seven Principles

1st Principle: The inherent worth and dignity of every person

In what do we ground the affirmation that all persons have inherent worth and dignity and what might our communities look like if we live more fully into this affirmation?

12:15 pm – Conversations & Calories

Good Times Team #4 are providing refreshments for our enjoyment.
